

ORDER OF MORNING WORSHIP

July 2, 2017 at Eleven o'clock
Fourth Sunday after Pentecost

Everyone is welcome at West End! We seek to be the loving light of Christ in Nashville and beyond. We gather as the people of God with a wide range of religious backgrounds, education levels, political and theological perspectives, and we value that diversity. We welcome and celebrate the gifts God has given to all without regard to gender, race, sexual orientation, economic or family status, ethnicity, or mental or physical ability. We believe God loves everyone unconditionally!

by thought, word, and deed, against thy divine majesty.

and are heartily sorry for these our misdoings;
the remembrance of them is grievous unto us.
Have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us, most merciful Father.

Prayer of Consecration

Prayer (in unison)
O Lord, our heavenly Father, we, thy humble servants, desire thy fatherly goodness mercifully to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving; most humbly beseeching thee to grant that,
by the merits and death of thy Son Jesus Christ, and through faith in his blood, we and thy whole Church may obtain forgiveness of our sins, and all other benefits of his passion.
And here we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, ourselves, our souls and bodies, to be a reasonable, holy and lively sacrifice unto thee;
humbly beseeching thee
that all we who are partakers of this Holy Communion may be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction.
And although we be unworthy, through our manifold sins,
to offer unto thee any sacrifice, yet we beseech thee
to accept this our bounden duty and service, not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offenses;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, by whom, and with whom,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. Amen.

Breaking the Bread

Prayer of Humble Access (in unison)

We do not presume to come to this thy table, O merciful Lord,
trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies.

We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy table.

But thou art the same Lord, whose property is always to have mercy.

Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord, so to partake of this Sacrament of thy Son Jesus Christ, that we may walk in newness of life,
may grow into his likeness, and may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

of Florence Cox McFerrin, Carol Cox Brandon and Reverend James Reed Cox by Dr. James Reed McFerrin.

The communion texts used in today's service are adapted from sources that date back to 1549. This historical continuity reminds us of our connection to those who have celebrated this holy meal before us. In eloquent and poetic language, these texts also remind us of our personal relationship with God. Before we come to the table, we are reminded of our need for God's mercy. God's forgiveness enables us to come to the table. United in this forgiveness, we come to the table as a forgiven and reconciled community in love and charity with each other.

Music Participants: The Chancel Choir. Minister of Music, Matthew Phelps, is directing. Associate Minister of Music, Andrew Risinger, is organist/accompanist. Mark Buchanan, tenor.
