Prayer of Consecration

Prayer (in unison)
O Lord, our heavenly Father, we, thy humble servants, desire thy fatherly goodness mercifully to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving; most humbly beseeching thee to grant that,
by the merits and death of thy Son Jesus Christ, and through faith in his blood, we and thy whole Church may obtain forgiveness of our sins, and all other benefits of his passion.
And here we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, ourselves, our souls and bodies,
to be a reasonable, holy and lively sacrifice unto thee;
humbly beseeching thee
that all we who are partakers of this Holy Communion may be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction.
And although we be unworthy,
through our manifold sins,
to offer unto thee any sacrifice, yet we beseech thee
to accept this our bounden duty and service, not weighing our merits, but pardoning our offenses;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, by whom, and with whom,

in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honor and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. Amen.

Breaking the Bread

Prayer of Humble Access (in unison)

We do not presume to come to this thy table, O merciful Lord,
trusting in our own righteousness,
but in thy manifold and great mercies.
We are not worthy
so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy table.
But thou art the same Lord, whose property is always to have mercy.
Grant us, therefore, gracious Lord, so to partake of this Sacrament of thy Son Jesus Christ, that we may walk in newness of life,
may grow into his likeness, and may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

Agnus Dei (all shall sing) ..... No. 30

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world,

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world,

grant us thy peace.

The altar flowers are given today to the glory of God and in loving memory of Dr. William H. Likins for his 42 years of service in the ministry by his family.

***The family invites all to share in the beauty of the altar flowers by taking a few stems home with you as you leave the 11:00 service.***

The rose on the altar is in celebration of the birth of John Edward "Jack" Pollard who was born December 03, 2015 to Lauren and James Pollard.

He is also welcomed by his big sister, Vivian Pollard; grandfather, Tom Trent; and his uncle and aunt, Alex and Valerie Trent.

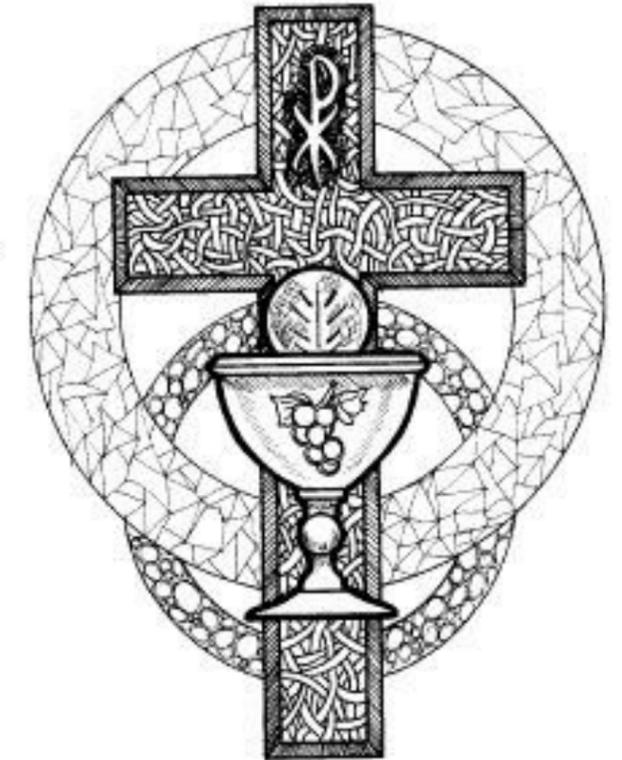

The communion texts used in today's service are adapted from sources that date back to 1549. This historical continuity reminds us of our connection to those who have celebrated this holy meal before us. In eloquent and poetic language, these texts also remind us of our personal relationship with God. Before we come to the table, we are reminded of our need for God's mercy. God's forgiveness enables us to come to the table. United in this forgiveness, we come to the table as a forgiven and reconciled community in love and charity with each other.

Today's Music: Music Participants: The Chancel Choir. Minister of Music, Matthew Phelps, director and assisting at the organ. Associate Andrew Risinger is organist/accompanist. Mo Coombs is alto soloist this morning.
