

ORDER OF MORNING WORSHIP
March 12, 2017 at Eight Forty-five
Second Sunday of Lent

Everyone is welcome at West End! We seek to be the loving light of Christ in Nashville and beyond. We gather as the people of God with a wide range of religious backgrounds, education levels, political and theological perspectives, and we value that diversity. We welcome and celebrate the gifts God has given to all without regard to gender, race, sexual orientation, economic or family status, ethnicity, or mental or physical ability. We believe God loves everyone unconditionally!

Hymnic Notes: The processional, originally titled, “The Holy Catholic Church,” was one of twelve hymns composed in 1866, on the twelve articles of the Apostles’ Creed in support of traditional means of dating and tracing the authorship of the Pentateuch, and countering the then-new source-criticism. The tune AURELIA, (from aurea, golden), composed by Charles Wesley’s grandson, Samuel Sebastian, famed Victorian composer and cathedral organist, is a paradigm of melodic and harmonic simplicity. The recessional is sung by Methodists around the world to share experiences each may have had since they last met, and affirm God’s love and redeeming power.

Preaching: Michael Williams
"God, Who Is Rich in Mercy"

Ephesians 2:4-10

But God, who is rich in mercy, out of the great love with which he loved us even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ – by grace you have been saved – and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, so that in the ages to come he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. For by grace you have been saved through faith, and this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God – not the result of works, so that no one may boast. For we are what he has made us, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand to be our way of life.
