Head Usher: Barbara Cragg

Music Participants: The Chancel Choir. Minister of Music, Matthew Phelps, is directing and assisting at the organ. Associate Minister of Music, Andrew Risinger, is organist/accompanist.

Hymnic Notes: Helmsley, the tune for the opening hymn, is the subject of much speculation. The tune was used for Charles Wesley's text, "Lo, He Comes with Clouds Descending," in the 1765 publication, Sacred Melodies, in which John Wesley attributed the tune to Thomas Olivers. However, the melody resembles Thomas Augustine Arne's "Thomas and Sally." Scholars debate whether Oliver would have heard this on the street and used it as the basis for his hymn tune. The text is rich with imagery of God's appearance on earth, the tragedy that befalls him in the Passion, and his reigning kingdom and the benefits of our salvation.

Paul Manz wrote the anthem "E'en so Lord Jesus Quickly Come," and his wife, Ruth, wrote the text, during a period where their three year old son was tragically ill. They wrote it as a prayer for God to come and answer their prayers for the child. The piece has been sung worldwide and is his most popular composition. Their child made a full recovery, which the couple attributed to the prayer.
