Everyone is welcome at West End! We seek to be the loving light of Christ in Nashville and beyond. We gather as the people of God with a wide range of religious backgrounds, education levels, political and theological perspectives, and we value that diversity. We welcome and celebrate the gifts God has given to all without regard to gender, race, sexual orientation, economic or family status, ethnicity, or mental or physical ability. We believe God loves everyone unconditionally!

Note: activities at the church are on a modified schedule as we practice social distancing to slow the spread of COVID-19. Please visit westendumc.org for the latest news and updates as we continue our ministry.

Liturgy by Sarah McCain.

Cover Art: The Workers in the Vineyard, by an unknown illustrator for Codex Aureus Epternanacensis, a collection of the four Gospels produced around 1030-50 at an abbey in France.

Media Team: Chase Bencin and Mac Pirkle

Music Participants: Patrick Dunnevant, baritone. Matthew Phelps and Andrew Risinger are organists this morning.

Today's Music: Charles Wesley is the author of "Ye Servants of God." He wrote it in 1744 for Hymns for Times of Trouble and Persecution in the section titled, "Hymns to Be Sung in Tumult." The occasion for writing was a time of persecution for Methodists in England. They were accused of disloyalty to the British Crown, among other things, and were therefore subject to violent persecution.

The text originally had six stanzas, but two of them were quite specific to the Methodist persecution of the time and are therefore omitted in modern hymnals. Otherwise, the text has been passed down in a very consistent form.
