Everyone is welcome at West End! We seek to be the loving light of Christ in Nashville and beyond. We gather as the people of God with a wide range of religious backgrounds, education levels, political and theological perspectives, and we value that diversity. We welcome and celebrate the gifts God has given to all without regard to gender identity, race, sexual orientation, economic or family status, ethnicity, or mental or physical ability. We believe God loves everyone unconditionally!

The Call to Worship is adapted from a resource by Beth Merrill Neel on the blog, "Hold Fast to What is Good." The Prayer of Confession is adapted from a prayer by Miriam Therese Winter in The United Methodist Book of Worship.

Cover Art: "Jesus teaches the disciples about humility and fraternal correction," a woodcut by an unknown illustrator of Jerome Nadal's Evangelicae Historiae Imagines, published in 1593 in Antwerp, Belgium.

Music Participants: The Sanctuary Choir. Andrew Risinger is organist-director. Matthew Phelps is organist.

Today's Music: While many hymns can be sung to different tunes, the only tune that has been used for "Be Thou My Vision" is SLANE – aptly named for the location at which St. Patrick is said to have defied the orders of King Logaire. This tune comes from an Irish folk song of the same name and was combined with the hymn text by Welsh composer David Evans in the 1927 edition of the Church Hymnary of the Church of Scotland.
