

ORDER OF MORNING WORSHIP

Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost
World Communion Sunday

Everyone is welcome at West End! We seek to be the loving light of Christ in Nashville and beyond. We gather as the people of God with a wide range of religious backgrounds, education levels, political and theological perspectives, and we value that diversity. We welcome and celebrate the gifts God has given to all without regard to gender, race, sexual orientation, economic or family status, ethnicity, or mental or physical ability. We believe God loves everyone unconditionally!

The Offering

Offertory Anthem: Prayer.....Gabriel Faure
If the voice of a child can ascend unto Thee, O my Father, hear Thy son, Jesus Christ, see him kneel, heed his prayer for Thy favor. If Thou hast chosen me to teach Thy holy laws here below Thee, I shall serve Thee, O Lord, most holy King of kings, light eternal. On my lips let there sound the holy truths which lead to salvation. They who are plagued by doubt, give them humility to adore Thee. Forsake me not, O Lord, give me strength, give me hope, give me courage. Help me to right the wrongs of the world and dispel all its sorrow. Reveal Thyself to me, O Lord, in whom I trust. Give Thy blessing: for Thee I'll suffer pain, suffer death on the cross for redemption. (Stephan Bordese)

Music Participants: The Chancel Choir. Minister of Music, Matthew Phelps, is director and assisting at the organ. Associate Andrew Risinger is organist/accompanist.

Today's music spans different cultures as we reflect on World Communion Sunday. Our introit is African; the processional hymn is English; our anthem is French; our communion hymns are American, Latin American, and Asian; our recessional hymn is Swiss; and our benediction response is from the Taizé Liturgy. As we sing music of other cultures, we are reminded of our unity with Christians all over the world.

Preaching: Michael Williams
"Jesus and the Mustard Seed"

Luke 17:5-10

The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith!' The Lord replied, 'If you had faith the size of a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted and planted in the sea", and it would obey you. 'Who among you would say to your slave who has just come in from ploughing or tending sheep in the field, "Come here at once and take your place at the table"? Would you not rather say to him, "Prepare supper for me, put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink; later you may eat and drink"? Do you thank the slave for doing what was commanded? So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say, "We are worthless slaves; we have done only what we ought to have done!"'
