Second Sunday of Advent

Everyone is welcome at West End! We seek to be the loving light of Christ in Nashville and beyond. We gather as the people of God with a wide range of religious backgrounds, education levels, political and theological perspectives, and we value that diversity. We welcome and celebrate the gifts God has given to all without regard to gender, race, sexual orientation, economic or family status, ethnicity, or mental or physical ability. We believe God loves everyone unconditionally!

The altar flowers are given today to the glory of God
by Cathy Sullivan
in memory of her husband, Robert Lee Sullivan.

The wedding flowers last week in Reed Hall were from the wedding of Caroline Hughes and John McClelland.

The rose on the altar is in celebration of the birth of Evelyn Ruth Siltan
who was born November 26, 2015 in Atlanta, GA
to Kristen and Jordan Siltan.
She is also welcomed by her big brother, Benji Siltan and grandparents, Lisa and Eddie Gwock.

The texts used in today's Communion service are used in many Christian traditions. They help us to see our relationship to those around us as an expression of our relationship to God. This is best expressed as we confess our sins, are assured of God's forgiveness, and then express that forgiveness with those around us in the "Passing of the Peace." The Peace is an act of reconciliation and blessing, based on New Testament Christian practice. When we are reminded of God's love and mercy, our response is to share that gift with others. United in this forgiveness, we come to the table as a forgiven and reconciled community in love and charity with each other.

Today's Music:

Music Participants: The Chancel Choir. Minister of Music, Matthew Phelps, director and Associate Andrew Risinger is organist/accompanist. Caitlin Dowling is assisting at the organ.

Our processional hymn this morning is Lo He Comes with Clouds Descending. This is a new hymn for us which we sing again for the fourth week of advent. With words by Charles Wesley and a traditional 18th century English tune, this hymn is a joyful account depicting Christ's imminent coming to earth.
