

ORDER OF MORNING WORSHIP

First Sunday in Lent

Everyone is welcome at West End! We seek to be the loving light of Christ in Nashville and beyond. We gather as the people of God with a wide range of religious backgrounds, education levels, political and theological perspectives, and we value that diversity. We welcome and celebrate the gifts God has given to all without regard to gender, race, sexual orientation, economic or family status, ethnicity, or mental or physical ability. We believe God loves everyone unconditionally!

Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (in unison)
Holy Lord, as we enter this Lenten season, we are reminded of our weakness and our need for your strength. We ask for forgiveness when we succumb to the temptations of this world, when we tread paths that are contrary to your will. We ask your forgiveness when we fail to look beyond our own desires to see another's need. We ask for your presence in our wilderness wanderings. May your hand guide us from the arid land of sin into a land flowing with milk and honey, a land made rich and abundant by your saving love.

During Lent we will explore different ways in which the psalms are sung. In the upcoming weeks we will sing psalm settings that are chanted, sung responsively, and sung to well-known hymn tunes. This week we will be using the Methodist chant located in the back of your hymnal. Singing the psalms not only expresses our prayer through music, it also connects us with Christians from all over time and space who have taken part in this revered tradition of prayer and supplication.

Preaching: Michael Williams

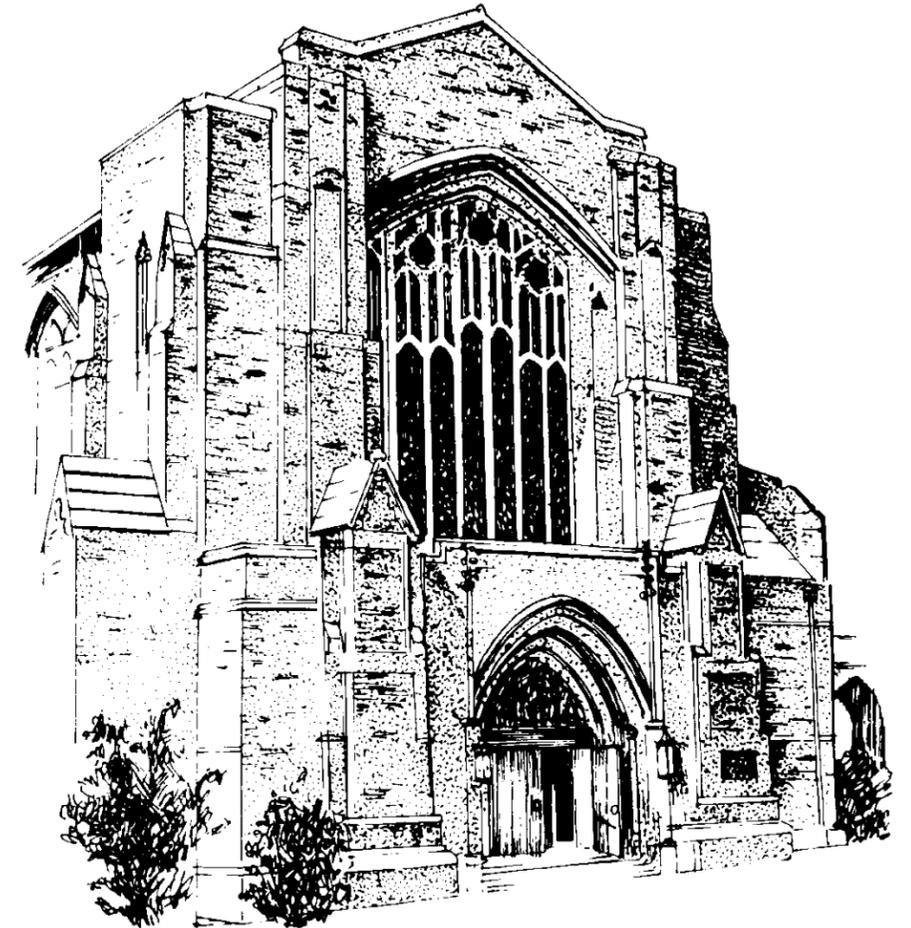

"Can God Really Have Our Best Interest at Heart?"

Psalm 91:1-2, 9-16

You who live in the shelter of the Most High, who abide in the shadow of the Almighty, will say to the Lord, "My refuge and my fortress; my God, in whom I trust."
Because you have made the Lord your refuge, the Most High your dwelling place, no evil shall befall you, no scourge come near your tent. For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways. On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone. You will tread on the lion and the adder, the young lion and the serpent you will trample under foot. Those who love me, I will deliver; I will protect those who know my name. When they call to me, I will answer them; I will be with them in trouble, I will rescue them and honor them. With long life I will satisfy them, and show them my salvation.
