

ORDER OF MORNING WORSHIP
February 12, 2017 at Eleven o'clock
Sixth Sunday after the Epiphany

Everyone is welcome at West End! We seek to be the loving light of Christ in Nashville and beyond. We gather as the people of God with a wide range of religious backgrounds, education levels, political and theological perspectives, and we value that diversity. We welcome and celebrate the gifts God has given to all without regard to gender, race, sexual orientation, economic or family status, ethnicity, or mental or physical ability. We believe God loves everyone unconditionally!

Loving God, you call us to walk in your ways,
observe your commandments,
and love you as you have loved us.

You offer us a community of abundant blessing,
with rich soil to promote dynamic growth.

Yet we often turn away from you to satisfy our own wants and desires.

We forsake the way of love and forgiveness,
giving in to petty jealousies and quarreling,
and surrendering our lofty ideals
to our baser inclinations.

Forgive us, O God.

When we flee from your embrace,
draw us into community with you and with one another.

Shower us with the cleansing waters of humility,
that we may reclaim our purpose and find nourishment and growth in labors of love
to bring your kingdom into our midst.

Silent Confession

Words of Assurance

Anthem.....Gilbert Martin

Come, all people, sing to the Savior, sing out loud and sing it out strong,
Sing and praise his wonder and glory, sing to his name with a joyful song.
Sweet hosannas, loudly sing to you Savior and to your King!

When the mothers gathered around him with their tender children so mild,
With his open arms he received them, and on the little ones gently smiled.
Sweet hosannas, loudly sing to you Savior and to your King!

There in heaven's happy regions angels chorus high.
Twice ten thousand times ten thousand praise him through the sky.
Sweet hosannas, loudly sing to you Savior and to your King!

Hymnic Notes: The processional hymn invites us to join with the whole creation in singing praises to God (Revelation 5:11-14; 7:11-12); and be thankful for God's day by day blessings.

The recessional was written by John Haynes Holmes, pastor and social prophet, at the turn of the 20th century when the USA had entered an era of prosperity and progress in part marked by the mass migration of people into urban centers where one person in three was close to starving to death, living in overcrowding, inadequate water facilities, unpaved streets, and disease. It is one of few remaining social gospel hymns composed in the early 20th century on the sins of the city and the Christian redemption of it; its wedding to the Welsh tune MEIRIONYDD has helped sustain its popularity. (Hymnic notes by Carlton Young)

Preaching: Nancy Parker
"Season and Illuminate"

Matthew 5:13-16

You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled underfoot. You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven.
