

ORDER OF MORNING WORSHIP

Everyone is welcome at West End! We seek to be the loving light of Christ in Nashville and beyond. We gather as the people of God with a wide range of religious backgrounds, education levels, political and theological perspectives, and we value that diversity. We welcome and celebrate the gifts God has given to all without regard to gender, race, sexual orientation, economic or family status, ethnicity, or mental or physical ability. We believe God loves everyone unconditionally!

O for a closer walk with God, a calm and heavenly frame; a light to shine upon the road that leads me to the Lamb! Return, O holy Dove! The Flower Fund provides flowers for West End's worship service when none have been donated. Today's flowers are made possible by this fund. If you would like to contribute, please mark your check or envelope "Flower Fund."

The rose on the Communion table is to celebrate the birth of Ethan Wallace Laird, born July 9, 2017 in Verona, NJ. He is the son of Ginny and David Laird, the grandson of Cheryl and Allen Patton, and joins sister, Sophia and brother, Grant.

Music Participants: The Chancel Choir. Minister of Music, Matthew Phelps, is director and assisting at the organ. Associate, Andrew Risinger, is organist/accompanist. Melissa Gramling is conducting the offertory this morning. Cory Cox, tenor soloist.

Hymnic Notes: The processional hymn invites us to praise God in Jesus Christ in all times and all places. It's unusual structure of rhymed couplets followed by a refrain 'May Jesus Christ be praised,' is aptly expressed in Joseph Barnby's only enduring tune of the 246 he composed. "I love thy kingdom Lord,' composed in 1801 by Timothy Dwight, the president of Yale College, consists of four stanzas of first-person singular statements extolling the virtues of the church, and a concluding summary stanza. It is thought to be the oldest hymn by a North American to remain in continuous use. The recessional by the British poet, social prophet, and Congregational minister, Albert Bayly (d. 1984), calls us to move beyond the words and forms of worship to service, in Christ's name. Bayly's hymns typically cite the specific needs of age groups, systemic evil and the plight of the urban poor and marginalized. (Hymnic notes by Carlton Young)

Preaching: Carol Cavin-Dillon
"The Unimpressive Mustard Seed"

Matthew 13: 31-33

He put before them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that someone took and sowed in his field; it is the smallest of all the seeds, but when it has grown it is the greatest of shrubs and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and make nests in its branches." He told them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed in with three measures of flour until all of it was leavened."
