† Call to Confession

† Prayer of Confession (in unison)
O God, we listen to the stories of the call of the disciples and find them interesting but unrealistic.
How could we leave everything to follow you?
But you are persistent and understand our doubt.
You continue to call us to be in ministry and mission in our world,
which may not mean leaving everything behind,
but it does mean being willing to serve wherever you call us.
That is hard for us, O God.
We want to place conditions on service.
Still you call to each of us.
Forgive us for turning our backs on serving you.
Forgive us when we look the other way.
Forgive us our angry attitudes and actions which hurt rather than heal.
Wrap your arms around us, healing our wounds, binding us to you.
Gently move us into service in your name. Amen.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Offertory: Beati Omnes.....James McCray

Happy are all those who fear the Lord and blessed are those who walk in his ways for they shall eat the labor of thine hands and it shall be well with thee. And thy wife shall be as the fruitful vine, vines that grow on the wall of thy house and thy children like olive branches, growing around thy table. For behold the person who feareth the Lord. The Lord from out of Zion shall bless thee. Jerusalem shall prosper all the days of her life. Yea, for thou shall see all thy children's children and peace shall come to Israel. (Psalm 128, sung in Latin)

Head Usher: Barbara Cragg

Music Participants: The Chancel Choir. Minister of Music, Matthew Phelps, is director and assisting at the organ. Associate Minister of Music, Andrew Risinger, is organist/accompanist.

Hymnic Notes: Issac Watts wrote "From All That Dwell Below the Skies" for his 1719 publication The Psalms of David, Imitated. It was one of three paraphrases he wrote based on Psalm 117, and it was first published in two verses. In 1780 John Wesley published a version with an added two verses. These verses are included in the United Methodist Hymnal, Trinity Hymnal, and Presbyterian Hymnal. The hymn tune Duke Street is often used with this text, along with another famous Watts text "Jesus Shall Reign Where'er the Sun." "Lord of the Dance" was a hymn text written by Sydney Carter in 1963 and paired with famous shaker tune Simple Gifts. The choral arrangement sung today was written by Larry Fleming. Fleming was the conductor of the National Lutheran Choir, and was known for numerous choral compositions and hymn arrangements. His arrangement of "Lord of the Dance" uses different effects to help communicate the text, and was often used by Fleming as a concert encore.
