† Call to Confession

† Prayer of Confession (in unison)

God of love and power, we listen to the stories of miracles and doubt that these things can happen today.

We see the waves of misfortune, misery, distrust, and anger, and we wonder how we can still those waves.

We feel the pressures of power and fear flooding into our lives, threatening to drown us, and we wonder where you are.

Forgive us for our weak faith.

Forgive us for our doubts.

Help us to place our trust in you, Lord Jesus.

Help us to fix our eyes on you and on the ministries to which you have called us.

For we ask these things in Jesus' Name. Amen.

Solo: Lord, Here Am I.....John Ness Beck

Master, thou callest, I gladly obey; only direct me, and I'll find my way. Teach me the mission appointed for me, what is my labor, and where it shall be. Master, thou callest, and here I reply, "ready and willing, Lord, here am I." Willing, my Savior, to take up the cross; willing to suffer reproaches and loss; willing to follow if Thou wilt but lead; only support me with grace in my need. Master, Thou callest, and this I reply, "ready and willing, Lord, here am I." Living or dying, I still would be Thine, yet I am mortal while Thou art divine. Pardon, whenever I turn from the right; pity, and bring me again to the light. Master, Thou callest, and this I reply, "ready and willing, Lord, here am I."

Prayers of the People

The Lord's Prayer (in unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Offertory: The Lord is my Shepherd.....Thomas Matthews

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

(Psalm 23)

Hymnic Notes: "How Firm a Foundation" is a hymn that for over two centuries has assured believers of the faithfulness of Christ and the certainty of hope. The first verse acts almost as an introduction to the rest of the text, giving us cause to stop and ponder the Word of assurance that God has given us, described in greater detail in the next four verses. Those four verses are in fact paraphrases of Scripture passages: Isaiah 41:10, 43:2, Romans 8:3-39, Hebrews 13:5, and Deuteronomy 31:6. In the words of this hymn then, we carry with us the Word from God, and the call to trust in that Word. But God's Word is expansive and not limited to letters on a page - the fifth verse moves us to a trust in the Word made flesh in Jesus Christ. Thus we are assured by the words we sing, the Word we are given, and the Word made flesh, of the steadfastness of God and His unfailing love.

Craig Phillips, a Nashville native and world renowned composer, wrote his Toccata on "How Firm a Foundation" for the dedication of the Schantz Organ at First Baptist Church in downtown Nashville.
