giver of all that makes life good,
We gather to give you our thanks,
yet we confess that we have often failed
to live our thankfulness.
We have taken for granted what we have,
and we have grumbled about what we lack.
We have squandered your bounty,
with little thought of those who will come after us.
We are more troubled by the few who have more than by the many who have less.
Forgive us, O God.
In this hour of worship, accept our thanksgiving,
and teach us to make gratitude and sharing a way of life,
through the grace of Jesus Christ. Amen.

that leads to life.

marvelous things! Break forth into joy. His praises the lyre and the

Head Ushers: John Nance and Byron Burrus

Music Participants: The Sanctuary Choir. Associate Minister of Music, Andrew Risinger, is organist/conductor. Minister of Music, Matthew Phelps, is assisting at the organ.

Hymnic Notes: The content of the hymn, "When in Our Music God Is Glorified," centers on the power and necessity of music in worship. Similar to the great reformer Martin Luther, Fred Pratt Green believes that music is an integral part of our faith practice. He boldly states that music can open new dimensions that bring profundity to our lives. As David danced and music played before the Ark of the Covenant, so too are we called to rejoice before God with music.
