Amen.

Offertory: Offertory.....John Ness Beck
With what shall I come before the Lord, and bow myself before God on high? Shall I come before him with burnt offerings? Shall I come before him with yearling calves? Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousand rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn for my transgressions, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul. Head Usher: Barbara Cragg

Music Participants: The Chancel Choir. Minister of Music, Matthew Phelps, director and assisting at the organ. Associate Minister of Music, Andrew Risinger, is organist/accompanist. Scott Brons is cantor.

Hymnic Notes: "The God of Abraham Praise" comes from a Jewish creedal doxology that is sung during the Sabbath eve service every week in some traditions. Thomas Olivers made a Christological translation around 1770, from which these stanzas are taken. The hymn begins by praising God for His might and power, as displayed through His relationship with His people, and ends by looking forward to when all the people of God will join in everlasting praise around the throne of God in heaven.

John Ness Beck, who wrote today's offertory, was a composer and arranger of choral music from Columbus, OH. He was known for his numerous compositions, especially sacred pieces that have been performed by choirs all over the world. He also taught composition and theory at The Ohio State University. He remained active as a composer and conductor until his untimely death from cancer at the age of 47.

Today's liturgy was written by Jayme Yeo.
