† Call to Confession

† Prayer of Confession (in unison)
Generous God,
we confess that we often carry excess baggage
on life's journey.
We live with a mindset of scarcity.
We allow our possessions to own us,
and we hold on to our money as if it had eternal rewards.
Free us, O God, from the weight of our false idols.
Help us to trust in your provision,
that we might share what we have with those who have less.
Open us to the joy of your mission
and the good news of the gospel,
that all people might have enough.
We ask this in the name of Jesus. Amen.

† Silent Confession

† Words of Assurance
Liturgist: Hear the good news: Christ died for us while we were yet sinners; that proves God's love toward us. In the name of Jesus Christ you are forgiven!
People: In the name of Jesus Christ you are forgiven!
All: Glory to God. Amen.

† Passing of the Peace
Liturgist: As a forgiven and reconciled people, let us exchange signs of reconciliation and love. The peace of Christ be with you.
People: And also with you.

and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen. Amen.

Prayers of the People

The Lord's Prayer (in unison)
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.
Amen.

Offertory: Perfect Love.....Patrick Hawes
Love is kind: gentle is love; love does not hate or envy; is always patient, all things endures; love is pure truth and goodness. No thing I own, or skill I have without love's touch is worthy; to spend my life, give all I own, without love is nothing. No hidden truth; truth beyond sight, or faith that can move mountains, will free my soul, or heal the world; without true love are worthless. Now like a child; child like I know, and see love dim and distant; the time will come when face to face I will see love and know Him. Andrew Hawes

† Doxology.....No. 94
Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise God, the source of all our gifts!
Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts!
Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit!
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

SENDING FORTH

Hymnic Notes: Johann Jakob Schütz wrote "Sing Praise to God Who Reigns Above" as a hymn of praise in German with nine stanzas. In 1675 he published it in his Christliches Gedenkbüchlein. The most common English translation in use is by Frances E. Cox from 1864, which was published in Orby Shipley's Lyra Eucharistica and her own Sacred Hymns from the German. Catherine Winkworth has also made a translation. This hymn is typically published with four stanzas. Stanza 1 always opens the hymn, and the original stanzas 2 and 6 are never used. Different hymnals include various selections from the remaining stanzas. There is some variation in wording, due to multiple translations and many alterations by hymnal editors. One textual difference affects the meaning of the opening line of stanza 7, "Thus all my gladsome way along." A few hymnals have "toilsome" in place of "gladsome." The German original does not contain either adjective; it simply says "all my life long." Most hymnals have "gladsome," which implies a life perspective that the joy of the Lord becomes deeply ingrained in one's soul. If "toilsome" is used, it implies that, even though life is often hard, God is good and can help the Christian endure. Each stanza ends with a brief refrain.
