O God, Giver of Life,
we confess that we struggle to make you the first priority in our lives.
We seek fulfilment through material possessions, and we give to others only after we have satisfied our own desires.

Teach us to respond to your love with generosity, so that we might work with you to build your Kingdom on earth as it is in heaven.
We ask this in Jesus' name. Amen.

Anthem: O Come Let us Sing Unto the Lord.....Anthony Piccolo
O come, let us sing unto the Lord; let us heartily rejoice in the strength of our salvation. Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving; and show ourselves glad in him with psalms. For the Lord is a great God; and a great king above all gods. In his hand are all the corners of the earth; and the strength of the hills is his also. The sea is his and he made it; his hands prepared the dry land. The sea is his and he made it; his hands prepared the dry land. O come, let us worship and fall down and come, let us kneel before the Lord, our maker. For he is the Lord our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be: world without end. Amen. (Psalm 95:1-7)

The Call to Worship was adapted from a resource by Christian Smith on the Ministry Council of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church website. The Prayer of Confession was adapted from a prayer by Holly W. Whitcomb in "Touch Holiness: Resources for Worship."

Music Participants: The Chancel Choir. Minister of Music, Matthew Phelps is director and assisting at the organ. Associate Minister of Music, Andrew Risinger is organist/accompanist.

Today's Music: Isaiah 41:9-10 says, "I took you from the ends of the earth, from its farthest corners I called you. I said, 'You are my servant'; I have chosen you and have not rejected you. So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand." No matter our situation, no matter our struggles and fears, no matter doubts, we are told to have courage, for the Lord is our God. And as Isaac Watts writes so powerfully in our processional hymn, our God is everlasting, and will be our help through all of our years. The first verse gives us every assurance we need: God is our help, our hope, and our home. This does not blithely dismiss our fears and troubles. They are, and always will be, very real. But it does assure us that even if we cannot feel the immediate comfort, or even when all we can do is lament, we have a God that withstands the storms of the life and the tests of time, and who protects us and hears our cries.
