The altar flowers today were donated by West End's Serendipity Circle in honor of their continued friendship, their families and their many friends at WEUMC, and in memory of Laura Trent, one of their dear founders whose birthday was March 1st.

*Everyone is welcome at West End! We seek to be the loving light of Christ in Nashville and beyond. We gather as the people of God with a wide range of religious backgrounds, education levels, political and theological perspectives, and we value that diversity. We welcome and celebrate the gifts God has given to all without regard to gender, race, sexual orientation, economic or family status, ethnicity, or mental or physical ability.
 We believe God loves everyone unconditionally!*

Head Usher: Barbara Cragg

Liturgy: Erin Racine

The Call to Worship is inspired by a prayer litany by Chuck Fromm and Jeremy Armstrong in an article in Worship Leader magazine. The Lord's Prayer Litany was adapted from a prayer by Katherine Hawker on the Liturgies Outside blog. The Lenten Prayer for Illumination was adapted from a prayer by Maren C. Tirabassi.

The service music printed in the order of worship is by Sally Ahner ©1983. Used with permission.

Music Participants: The Chancel Choir. Minister of Music, Matthew Phelps, director and Associate Minister of Music, Andrew Risinger, organist/accompanist.

Today's Music: Newton's autobiographical hymn, "Amazing Grace," reveals a deeply felt conversion and transformation from his former life as a slave trader. It was first printed at XLI in Olney Hymns, 1779, under the superscription "I Chronicles xvii. 16-17, Faith's review and expectation." The Olney collection was one of the first collections of evangelical hymns produced for use in an Anglican Parish. (Newton was curate in the Olney Parish from 1764-1780.) The hymn entered American songbooks early in the nineteenth century through Zion Songster, 1829, but it was not included in our official books until the 1847 hymnal of the southern church. Since then it has been included in all our hymnals, usually in five stanzas, omitting the original sixth stanza, "The earth shall soon dissolve like snow, the sun forbear to shine, But God, who called me here below, will be forever mine." (Carlton Young)

WEST END

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

And seeing the multitudes, Jesus went up into a mountain. And He opened His mouth, and taught them, saying, "Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth. Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets, which were before you. Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid."
