Give us this day our daily bread.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.
Amen.

Awake, my heart, and render to God thy sure defender, Thy Maker, thy preserver, a song of love and fervor. Confirm my deeds and guide me: my day, with thee beside me, Beginning, middle, ending, will gladness swelling; Thy word my nurture, given to bring me on toward heaven. (Gerhardt, translation Douglas)

Everyone is welcome at West End! We seek to be the loving light of Christ in Nashville and beyond. We gather as the people of God with a wide range of religious backgrounds, education levels, political and theological perspectives, and we value that diversity. We welcome and celebrate the gifts God has given to everyone: every age, race, gender identity, sexual orientation, economic and family status, ethnicity, and mental and physical ability. We believe God loves everyone unconditionally!

Note all activities are postponed as we practice social distancing to slow the spread of COVID-19. Please visit westendumc.org for the latest news and updates as we continue our ministry.

Liturgy by Maggie Jarrell.

Media Team: Chase Bencin and Mac Pirkle

Cover Art: “Jesus multiplies the loaves and fish.” Contemporary painting from 1973 by the JESUS MAFA project, a Christian community in Cameroon, Africa, where community members dramatically interpreted specific New Testament passages. Those dramas were photographed and then transcribed to paintings.

Music Participants: Chamber Choir. Matthew Phelps is director-organist.

Today’s Music: The words to “Break Thou the Bread of Life,” were authored by Mary Lathbury, who often wrote hymns to accompany various parts of the Bible. Eventually known as the “Poet of Chautauqua,” Lathbury was seen as a kind and gentle Christian soul whose creativity was immense. “Break Thou the Bread of Life” is one of her two most widely known hymns.
