† Call to Confession

† Prayer of Confession (in unison)

God of Majestic Love and Grace, we confess that our desires are often incongruent with yours.
We champion victory, accumulation, popularity, and appearance.
You uplift liberation, radical generosity, compassion, and sincerity.
We want a king who validates our biases and vanquishes those with whom we disagree, but you emptied and humbled yourself to the point of death, even death on a cross.
Forgive us, O Lord, for you are not the ruler we expected, and we find ourselves hesitant to answer discipleship's call.
God of all-consuming love and acceptance, may we come to trust in the care and compassion you have for each and every one of us, that we may know the fullness of your freedom from these things that bind, that we may follow you in the ways that lead to life.

† Silent Confession

† Words of Assurance

Liturgist: Hear the good news: Christ died for us while we were yet sinners; that proves God's love toward us. In the name of Jesus Christ you are forgiven!

People: In the name of Jesus Christ you are forgiven!

All: Glory to God. Amen.

† Passing of the Peace

Liturgist: As a forgiven and reconciled people, let us exchange signs of reconciliation and love. The peace of Christ be with you.

People: And also with you.

† Gloria Patri.....No. 71

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost;
 as it was in the beginning,
 is now, and ever shall be world without end. Amen. Amen.

The Sacrament of Baptism

Renunciation of Sin and Profession of Faith

Liturgist: Will you nurture one another in the Christian faith and life and include this child now before you in your care?

People: With God's help we will proclaim the good news and live according to the example of Christ. We will surround this child with a community of love and forgiveness, that he may grow in service with others. We will pray for him to be a true disciple who walks in the way that leads to life.

Offertory: Sing to the Lord of HarvestHealy Willan

Sing to the Lord of harvest, sing songs of love and praise;

with joyful hearts and voices your Alleluias raise!

By him the rolling seasons in fruitful order move;

sing to the Lord of harvest a song of happy love.

By him the clouds drop fatness, the deserts bloom and spring, the hills leap up in gladness, the valleys laugh and sing.

He filleth with his fullness and things with large increase;

he crowns the year with goodness, with plenty and with peace.

Heap on His sacred altar the gifts His goodness gave, the golden sheaves of harvest, the souls He died to save.

Your hearts lay down before Him when at his feet ye fall.

And with your lives adore Him who gave his life for all.

† Doxology.....No. 94

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;

Praise God, all creatures here below:

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Praise God, the source of all our gifts!

Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts!

Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit!

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

assisting at the organ. Andrew Risinger is organist/accompanist. Bethany DiSantis is conducting this morning.

Today's Music: "Now Thank We All Our God" was written by Martin Rinkart sometime around the Thirty Years' War in the 1630s, although it wasn't published until 1663. His inspiration for the first two stanzas comes from the Apocryphal Book of Ecclesiasticus, chapter 50:22-24, which reads in part, "Now bless God of all, who in every way does great things." The third stanza is a paraphrase of the Gloria Patri, originally composed in Greek in the fourth century, although some of it was written as early as 95 CE. The second verse hints at the sickness and disease of the Thirty Years' War.
