Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession (in unison)

God of Salvation,
sometimes you have hard words for us to hear.
The voice crying out in the wilderness, "Prepare the way of the Lord," calls us to take a closer look at ourselves and our world to see where we are falling short.
We hoard our possessions and resources.
We prioritize our own comfort over justice and equality for all.
We act out of fear rather than faith.
Save us from ourselves, O God.
May our hearts be filled with repentance.
May we turn towards your love, your mercy, your grace.
Help us to have ears to hear, eyes to see,
and hands that will work for the coming of your kin-dom.

Music Participants: The Sanctuary Choir. Andrew Risinger is organist-director.
Matthew Phelps is organist.

Today’s Music: Psalm 72, the basis for the text of today’s Closing Hymn, is a well-known prophecy of the coming Messiah—foretelling the reign of the King and what the Kingdom of that Messiah will be like. But perhaps more than a prophecy, Psalm 72 is a prayer. In these verses the psalmist calls upon God to give justice and righteousness to the King, perhaps the newly crowned earthly king of Israel, but also the heavenly king. It is a cry for the deliverance of a broken people, for the realization of peace and light. James Montgomery’s hymn, “Hail to the Lord’s Anointed,” from 1821 beautifully captures the essence of that prayer.
