Today's Music: According to mythology, when St. Patrick was a missionary in Ireland in the 5th century, King Logaire of Tara decreed that no one was allowed to light any fires until a pagan festival was begun by the lighting of a fire on Slane Hill. In a move of defiance against this pagan ritual, St. Patrick did light a fire, and, rather than execute him, the king was so impressed by his devotion that he let Patrick continue his missionary work. Three centuries later, a monk named Dallan Forgaill wrote the Irish poem, "Rop tú mo Baile" ("Be Thou my Vision), to remember and honor the faith of St. Patrick.

AS YOU JOIN US IN COMMUNION

This Sunday, we are pleased to offer the option to receive communion at the altar rail. If you choose to be served at the rail, you will receive the elements by hand from volunteer servers. As you are directed, please make your way to the communion rail by way of the center aisle. Kneel, remove one side of your mask, and open your hands. You will be given a small piece of bread and then a small cup of juice. After you have received, place your empty cup on the communion rail and secure your mask. You may stay kneeling for prayer as long as you wish, and then return to your seat by way of the outside aisle.

If you are not comfortable receiving communion elements at the rail or simply prefer to receive in your seat, pastors will bring elements to you. Those served in their seats will receive prepackaged communion wafers and cups. As you see the pastors pass by, simply raise your hand or catch their eye so they know you need to be served. After you have received, you may discard your cups in the small plastic bins at the end of each pew. ALL of our elements, both served at the rail and served in the pews, are gluten free.
