Loving God, our world seems such a mess right now:

greed triumphs over generosity;

Your mercy is for all of us.

May we emulate your love each and every day.

A rose on the table celebrates the birth of Sebastian James Counts on January 27th to Kayla and Donald Counts. He is welcomed by his big brother, Tristan Counts.

Everyone is welcome at West End! We seek to be the loving light of Christ in Nashville and beyond. We gather as the people of God with a wide range of religious backgrounds, education levels, political and theological perspectives, and we value that diversity. We welcome and celebrate the gifts God has given to all without regard to gender identity, race, sexual orientation, economic or family status, ethnicity, or mental or physical ability. We believe God loves everyone unconditionally!

Music Participants: Sanctuary Choir. Andrew Risinger is organist-director. Matthew Phelps is assisting at the organ.

Today's Music: One of the best-known Bible verses on the topic of joy is Philippians 4:4, "Rejoice in the Lord always; again, I will say, rejoice." In a fallen world, it is easy to find excuses for being gloomy, but the apostle Paul wrote those words while a prisoner in Rome. In fact, despite his outwardly dreary circumstances, the whole letter to the Philippians is overflowing with joy and thankfulness. "Rejoice, Ye Pure in Heart," our closing hymn, is a good reminder of the joy that Christians should display, regardless of circumstances.
