Everyone is welcome at West End! We seek to be the loving light of Christ in Nashville and beyond. We gather as the people of God with a wide range of religious backgrounds, education levels, political and theological perspectives, and we value that diversity. We welcome and celebrate the gifts God has given to all without regard to gender identity, race, sexual orientation, economic or family status, ethnicity, or mental or physical ability. We believe God loves everyone unconditionally!

Music Participants: The Sanctuary Choir. Andrew Risinger, organist-director. Matthew Phelps is assisting at the organ. The Joy Ringers. Matthew Phelps, director.

Today's Music: Originally consisting of eighteen stanzas, most hymnals have modified "O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing" to include stanzas 7-12 (the first six stanzas are primarily autobiographical of Wesley's conversion experience), and end with the original stanza 1, the doxology stanza. The title of the song was acquired by Wesley from his friend Peter Böhler, a Moravian, who said, "If I had a thousand tongues, I would praise Christ with them all" (Psalter Hymnal Handbook).
