Peter Rogahn joined the Music Ministry at First Presbyterian Church of Nashville as Organist and Assistant Director of Music in October 2019. He previously served as Precentor at Bethlehem Lutheran Church in Indianapolis, Indiana. A believer in the positive impact of music in education, he worked as the Choral Accompanist and Instructional Assistant at Lawrence North High School in Indianapolis, where he accompanied the school’s six choirs and assisted with music theory, piano, and electronic music classes. Peter recently completed the Doctor of Music degree in Organ Performance and Literature with minors in Music Theory and Choral Conducting at Indiana University Jacobs School of Music. He also holds a Performer Diploma and a Master of Music degree from IU and a Bachelor of Music from Concordia College, Moorhead, MN. His principal teachers include Christopher Young, Peter Nygaard, and Harold Rutz.
