

ENCOUNTER

A MID-WEEK SERVICE OF PRAYER AND PRESENCE

“Come, Holy Spirit” is Our Theme for August 31-October 5
Week 3: September 14, 2022 – “Transformed by the Spirit”

Gathering Music

Welcome

Gathering Hymn: Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing Nettleton
Come, thou Fount of every blessing, tune my heart to sing thy grace; streams of mercy, never ceasing, call for songs of loudest praise.
Teach me some melodious sonnet, sung by flaming tongues above.
Praise the mount! I’m fixed upon it, mount of thy redeeming love.

Here I raise my Ebenezer; hither by thy help I come;
and I hope, by thy good pleasure, safely to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me when a stranger, wandering from the fold of God;
he, to rescue me from danger, interposed his precious blood.

O to grace how great a debtor daily I’m constrained to be!
Let thy goodness like a fetter, bind my wandering heart to thee.
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it, prone to leave the God I love;
here’s my heart, O take and seal it, seal it for thy courts above.

Gathering Prayer (Fire of God Thou Sacred Flame by Albert F. Bayly)

One: Fire of God, thou sacred flame, Spirit who in splendour came,

All: let thy heat my soul refine, till it glows with love divine.

One: Breath of God, that swept in power, in the pentecostal hour,

All: holy breath, be thou in me source of vital energy.

One: Strength of God, thy might within, conquers sorrow, pain and sin:

All: fortify from evil’s art, all the gateways of my heart.

One: Love of God, thy grace profound, knoweth neither age nor bound:

All: come, my heart’s own guest to be, dwell for evermore in me.

Scripture: Acts 9:1-19 and Galatians 5:22-26

Meditation

Reflection and Response

During our time of Reflection and Response, you are invited to engage in a variety of prayer stations. Each week, you may choose a different option or utilize the same one repeatedly. You may also use these practices to center yourself on God and welcome the Holy Spirit anytime during the week. You may take part in the Taizé chant while it is sung.

Hymn during reflection: Ubi Caritas

Jacques Berthier

(Where there is charity and love, God is found.)

Concluding prayer and Benediction

Hymn: Breathe on Me Breath of God

Trentham

Breathe on me, breath of God, fill me with life anew, that I may love what thou dost love, and do what thou wouldst do.

Breath one me, breath of God, till I am wholly thine, till all this earthly part of me glows with the fire divine.

Breathe on me, breath of God, so shall I never die, but live with thee the perfect life of thine eternally.

At Home Reflection Prompts

During our time of Reflection and Response, those worshipping in person in the 4th Story Theater will be invited to engage in a variety of prayer stations. Those worshipping at home are invited to choose any of the following options for reflection and response. Each week, you may choose a different option or utilize the same one repeatedly. You may also use these practices to center yourself on God and welcome the Holy Spirit anytime during the week.

Option 1: Breath Prayer

Ruach, one of the Hebrew words for breath, can be translated as Spirit. This type of prayer reminds us of the ways God continually breathes life into our souls. Choose a simple word or phrase to help focus your attention on God. This might be a simple phrase from our Scripture for the evening, a simple one sentence blessing you know, or even just two words that God has given you. Sit or lie comfortably, allowing your breathing to be natural. As you breathe in, focus on the first word or first part of the phrase. Then as you breathe out, focus on the second word or second part of the phrase. Repeat continually. Two examples:

Inhale: Spirit of life

Inhale: Peace

Exhale: fill my soul.

Exhale: Love

Option 2: Holy Fire, Light of the World

Find a candle in your home, office, or wherever you are worshipping. Light the candle. Gaze at its flame. Watch it dance and flicker. Feel its warmth and radiance. As you gaze into the fire, contemplate the ways that you have seen the light of Christ shine in your life this week.

Remember the large and small ways that you have seen the Spirit of God present and moving in your life; in the smile of a child or grandchild, in a chat with a friend, in a good meal, on a beautiful hike, etc. Ponder these things, give thanks to God for being with you in those moments, and pray to be open to the presence of God's Spirit in the coming week.

Option 3: Postures of Presence

Throughout the centuries, Christians have recognized the power of bodily posture to help us connect to the Spirit of God. As we seek to encounter God's in-dwelling presence, one of the most common ways to open our bodies and souls to the spirit has been to raise our hands in praise (in a V, similar to a touchdown call in football). This pose is called the orans. It can be seen in some of the earliest of depictions of Christian worship and people still raise their hands in praise to this day. Raise your hands in praise. Close your eyes and breathe calmly. Feel the presence of God as you open yourself to the Spirit. Offer your prayers, be they joyous praises or heartfelt laments. Give it to God, and let God fill your body and soul with love and grace. If you are uncomfortable raising your arms in praise, an alternative can be to place your hands together in front of you, palms up and open. Give what you need to give to God and expect to receive God's spirit in return.

Option 4: Spirit Words, Spirit Images

Find some blank paper and some pens, pencils, markers, or colored pencils. Spend a moment breathing deeply, asking for God's Spirit to speak to you. As you are ready, begin to write or draw whatever comes to your heart or mind. There is no right or wrong here. Simply allow yourself to be guided by the Spirit. Once you have written and/or drawn whatever God has placed on your heart, spend time meditating on these words and images. Give thanks for what God has revealed to you.
