† Call to Confession

† Prayer of Confession (in unison)

Creator God,
you made us in your image
and gave us stewardship over the earth.

You have called us very good, beloved, your children.

You invited us into the covenant of baptism and celebrate our belonging to your family.

And yet we turn away.

We confess this day that sometimes we do not live into our baptismal vows.

We have sinned against each other and against you.

We have turned our backs on injustice and oppression.

We have trusted in things that are not of your grace.

We have not loved our neighbors fully.

And yet, we are still your beloved children.

The remembrance of these vows calls us back to repentance and reminds us of who we are and whose we are.

Forgive us,
and grant that we may boldly confess Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and live according to your will.

† Silent Confession

† Words of Assurance

Liturgist: Hear the good news: Christ died for us while we were yet sinners; that proves God's love toward us. In the name of Jesus Christ you are forgiven!

† Passing of the Peace

let us exchange signs of reconciliation and love.
The peace of Christ be with you.*

People: And also with you.

and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning,
is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen. Amen.

Everyone is welcome at West End! We seek to be the loving light of Christ in Nashville and beyond. We gather as the people of God with a wide range of religious backgrounds, education levels, political and theological perspectives, and we value that diversity. We welcome and celebrate the gifts God has given to all without regard to gender identity, race, sexual orientation, economic or family status, ethnicity, or mental or physical ability. We believe God loves everyone unconditionally!

Liturgy written by Maggie Jarrell.

Cover Art: "The Sixth Day of Creation," the final of six panels in West End's Old Testament window that depict the six days of creation as described in Genesis 1. The window was designed by the Nicola D'Ascenzo studios and donated by Wade C. Owen.

Music Participants: Sanctuary Choir; Patricia Cullum, soprano (Introit); Emma Jackson, soprano & Bethany DiSantis, alto (Offertory). Andrew Risinger is organist-director. Matthew Phelps is assisting at the organ.

Today's Music: Our recessional hymn, "Here I am, Lord," is a song of commitment and sending forth sung in both denominational and ecumenical worshipping communities. Schutte's setting contrasts the Hebrew psalmic transcendent characterizations of God as Lord of sea, sky, snow, rain, wind, and flame, with compelling prophetic and pietistic themes of the caring God who is intimately involved in the struggles of the poor and oppressed. (Carlton Young)

READING GOD'S STORY TOGETHER

The Bible is a book that never gets old. It continues to speak into our lives and teach us about who God is and who we are called to be. Whether you've never read the Bible before, have read bits and pieces, or have studied it from cover to cover, we all have more to discover. And there's no better way to study the scriptures than in community. So, you are invited to join at least 150 other West Enders in reading through the Bible together in 2023! Over the next year, as West End celebrates 150 years of ministry, we will be hearing our story within the context of God's greater story as told through the scriptures. Visit westendumc.org/bibleyear to find all the information you need to participate in reading with us, but also how to get involved in a small group, upcoming large group gatherings, reading guides and more. Come and be part of the story!
