The altar flowers are given by Allan and Gretchen Horner to glorify our Lord, and in memory and celebration of the lives of our mothers and sisters who have gone before us - Phyllis Ann Pederson, Janet Best Horner, Karen Pederson Drury, Laura Horner Winebarger and Sue Elizabeth Horner.
We hope to be with them again one day. But not yet.

Liturgy written by Shannon Baxter.

The service music printed in the order of worship is by Sally Ahner ©1983.

Bulletin Cover Art: "David and Harp," painted by Marc Chagall in 1958. Chagall (1887-1985) was born into a Jewish family in what is now Belarus. He lived in various places during his artistic career and wartime, including France, but escaped to New York for 7 years when France was occupied. Although his paintings vary widely according to subject, Chagall produced several hundred paintings on Biblical subjects, of which this is one.

Music Participants: The Chancel Choir. Matthew Phelps is the director and assists at the organ. Andrew Risinger is the organist/accompanist.

Today's Music: Thomas Chisholm, author of "Great is Thy Faithfulness," led a fairly ordinary life. He did not write this hymn during a period of intense grief or after encountering God in a profound way. Instead, he found truth in the words he encountered in Lamentations 3:22-23: "Because of the LORD's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness."

The History of Our Sanctuary Windows

As part of our yearlong celebration of our church's 150th Anniversary, don't forget about Lunch and Learn with Heath Jones to learn about the history and meaning in our beautiful sanctuary stained-glass windows. We will gather in the 4th Story Theater for a time of lunch together (only for those who RSVPd) before Heath leads us in a presentation about our windows. After we learn about the families represented in the windows, the meanings of symbols chosen, and more, we will tour the Sanctuary to see the windows up close and in person in a whole new light.

Service of Choral Evensong

The Sanctuary Choir will sing a service of choral evensong in the sanctuary this afternoon at 4 p.m. Led by Andrew Risinger, conductor, and guest organist, Malcolm Matthews, the service will include music of Joseph Barnby, Herbert Howells, Paul Spicer, and Charles Wood. We invite everyone to join in this service of prayers sung and spoken...a time to forget the ceaseless activity of daily life and be still.
