Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and humbly repent.
For the sake of your son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name.

† Silent Confession

† Words of Assurance

Liturgist: Hear the good news: Christ died for us while we were yet sinners; that proves God's love toward us. In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!
People: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

Lord, open our hearts and minds by the power of your Holy Spirit, that as the Scriptures are read and the Word proclaimed, we may hear with joy what you say to us today. Amen.

† Hymn No. 191: Jesus Loves Me.....Jesus Loves Me

Children’s Bible Presentation

Liturgist: Receive the Word of God. Learn its stories and study its words.

Its stories belong to us all, and these words speak to us all.

They tell us of God’s love. They tell us who we are.

They tell us that we belong to one another, for we are the people of God.

Congregational Blessing (in unison)

Holy God,

we thank you for each of these children before us. We rejoice in this step in their faith journey. We love them and we ask your blessing on them and the adults who care for them.

Lord, may they all experience your love as they discover together the stories of scripture. We pray that the stories will light up their paths and help them grow to be the people you created them to be. We ask that your Word would live in their hearts all their days. Amen.

Sermon: Healing Power..... Carol Cavin-Dillon

† Affirmation of FaithNo. 883

We are not alone, we live in God’s world.

We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made Flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit.

We trust in God.

We are called to be the church: to celebrate God’s presence, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.

In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us.

We are not alone. Thanks be to God. Amen.

Joys and Concerns of the Church.....Emily Robbins

Liturgist: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Liturgist: Let us pray.

Prayers of the People

The Lord’s Prayer (in unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.

Amen.

Offertory: Let All the World..... Robert Baker

Let all the world in ev’ry corner sing,

“My God and king!”

The heav’ns are not too high,

his praise may thither fly!

The earth is not too low,

his praises there may grow.

The church with psalms must shout;

no door can keep them out!

But above all the heart must bear the longest part.

Today's Music

Ira Sankey, a good friend of hymn author Fanny Crosby, once related this story about the comfort "Blessed Assurance" provides: "During the recent war in the Transvaal, said a gentleman at my meeting in Exeter Hall, London, in 1900, 'when the soldiers going to the front were passing another company whom they recognized, their greetings used to be, "Four-nine-four, boys; four-nine-four;" and the salute would invariably be answered with "Six further on, boys; six further on." The significance of this was that, in 'Sacred Songs and Solos,' a number of copies of the small edition of which had been sent to the front, number 494 was 'God be with you till we meet again'; and six further on than 494, or number 500, was 'Blessed Assurance, Jesus is mine'" (My Life and Sacred Songs, 69).
