in us and others by the Spirit.
We trust in God.
We are called to be the church: to celebrate God's presence, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.
In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us.
We are not alone. Thanks be to God. Amen.

Joys and Concerns of the Church

Salutation

Liturgist: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Liturgist: Let us pray.

Prayers of the People

Offertory: In the Bleak Midwinter Dale Wood

In the bleak midwinter, frosty wind made moan
earth stood hard as iron, water like a stone;
snow had fallen, snow on snow, snow on snow,
in the bleak midwinter, long ago.

Our God, heaven cannot hold him, nor earth sustain;
heaven and earth shall flee away when he comes to reign.
In the bleak midwinter a stable place sufficed
the Lord God Almighty, Jesus Christ.

Angels and archangels may have gathered there,
cherubim and seraphim thronged the air;
but his mother only, in her maiden bliss,
worshiped the beloved with a kiss.

What can I give him, poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd, I would bring a lamb;
if I were a Wise Man, I would do my part;
yet what I can I give him: give my heart.

† Doxology No. 94

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below:
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise God, the source of all our gifts!
Praise Jesus Christ, whose power uplifts!
Praise the Spirit, Holy Spirit!
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

† Thanksgiving

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them up to the Lord.
Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People: It is right to give God thanks and praise.

† Prayer of Praise and Thanksgiving

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, heav - en and earth are ful of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

 Give us this day our daily bread.

 For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever.

Today's Music

We Three Kings was written by John Henry Hopkins, Jr. in 1857. It was written for a Christmas Pageant held at General Theological Seminary in New York City where Hopkins served as the music teacher after his Diaconate graduation in 1850. The hymn was first published in 1862 and has subsequently been published by most major Christian denominations, making it one of the most widely known carols in the world.

Bulletin Cover Art

“Journey of the Magi,” by the French artist James Jacques Joseph Tissot (1836-1902). Tissot’s works include a wide variety of commissioned paintings of French aristocrats, but he also became intensely interested in Biblical subjects and produced many paintings of Old and New Testament characters and stories.

OFFERING DIVERSE PERSPECTIVES ON GOD & FAITH IN ART

In August, our Art Inclusion Task Force released a Request for Qualifications for Nashville-based artists whose work offers diverse perspectives and understandings of God and the people of God both historically and today. From those submissions, three artists were selected to create proposals for a new work of art to be commissioned for the church. Those proposals are now being presented to the congregation for the purpose of selecting the final artwork to be commissioned.

Please review each artist's submission thoughtfully and then vote according to your preferences by January 14, 2024. The highest-scoring proposal will be selected for funding. Visit westendumc.org/voteforart to see the artwork, learn more about each artist and vote.

WORSHIP SURVEY: CHRISTMAS AND SUMMER

It is a healthy practice from time to time to evaluate our patterns and traditions to see if they are serving our congregation and our community as fruitfully as possible. At the beginning of this new year, we've created a brief survey to gauge our congregation's needs on Christmas Eve and Summer Worship times. Please take a few minutes to let us know your thoughts. You can find the survey at westendumc.org/survey.

FIRST WEDNESDAY: DINNER AND STUDY

YOU'RE STILL INVITED: TO LISTEN FOR GOD'S CALL

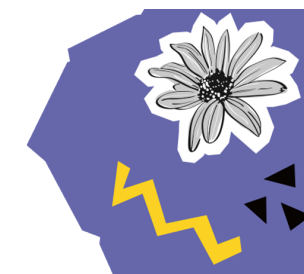

Throughout January, we are grounding our worship life in call stories from Jesus' life and ministry. Join us on Wednesday, January 10 for First Wednesday dinner and study. At 5:15 p.m., we will share a meal together. Please register at westendumc.org/firstwednesday for dinner by Tuesday at noon. Then at 6 pm, we will explore what a "calling" sounds like and how we can become a people with ears to hear God's fresh voice. Our time together that evening will set the stage for a follow-up discussion focused on living into our gifts on Wednesday, February 7. It is our prayer that by attending these two gatherings, you will find your unique way of serving with Jesus in our church, our neighborhoods, and our beautiful world.

MLK DAY CELEBRATION

Join others from West End as we participate in MLK Day events and claim the belovedness of God for all people. Meet in front of Jefferson Street Baptist Church on Monday, January 15 at 9 a.m. The Convocation will be at 10 a.m. at TSU.

You're (STILL) Invited

One of the phrases we often hear from Jesus in the Gospels is his invitation to "follow me." Each one of us is called to follow Jesus and to live out his love in the world. During the season after Epiphany, we will consider what it means to be "called" as baptized Christians with unique spiritual gifts. During this season we will reaffirm our baptismal vows, hear the stories of the call of the first disciples, explore our spiritual gifts, and recommit ourselves to following Jesus in our everyday lives. Whether you have been a follower of Jesus for fifty years or fifty days, you are (still) invited to hear the call and respond with joy!
