We trust in God.
We are called to be the church: to celebrate God's presence, to live with respect in Creation,to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.
In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us.
We are not alone. Thanks be to God. Amen.

Today's Music
As Edward Mote was walking to work one day in 1834, the thought popped into his head to write a hymn on the "gracious experience of a Christian." As he walked up the road, he had the chorus, "On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand; All other ground is sinking sand." By the end of the day, he had the first four verses written out and safely tucked away in his pocket. Later that week, he visited his friend whose wife was very ill, and, as they couldn't find a hymnal to sing from, he dug up his newly written verses and sang those with the couple. The wife enjoyed them so much she asked for a copy, and Mote went home to finish the last two verses and sent it off to a publisher, saying, "As these verses so met the dying woman's case, my attention to them was the more arrested, and I had a thousand printed for distribution" (Lutheran Hymnal Handbook).

Bulletin Cover Art
"The Prophet Jeremiah" is a 1968 painting by Marc Chagall, a Jewish artist born in Russia, who escaped the antisemitism there to settle in France. This painting depicts Jeremiah with a long beard and holding a book. He is surrounded by an orb in which an Angel of the Lord appears to him. Against a dark background, we also find a crescent moon with a glow around it.

OCT COMMUNION OFFERING BENEFITS COLLEGE MINISTRY

We are approaching October's Communion offering for campus ministries a little differently this year. Traditionally, the offering is divided four ways between four campus ministries in our area. However, in light of West End's incredible generosity of providing $50,000 in support for Vanderbilt Wesley this year, we have chosen to focus this month's offering on the Wesley Foundations at Fisk University and Tennessee State University. All funds raised during October will be shared between these two campus ministries, both of which serve students at institutions that have been historically and systematically underfunded.

WESLEYAN PILGRIMAGE TO ENGLAND

If you have ever wanted to explore the roots of Methodism in the places that John and Charles Wesley lived and ministered, we are seeking information from interested individuals to judge the viability of a trip for West End UMC. The possible trip would take place next summer, July 6-16, 2026, and will visit places like London, Epworth, Bristol, Salisbury, and Oxford. Approximate cost will be $2700, not including airfare. If you would like to register your interest in this experience, fill out the form at westendumc.org/pilgrimage by October 12. For more information, please contact Shannon or Aimee Baxter.

ANNUAL TOWN HALL // OCTOBER 26

Join us for this year's annual Town Hall meeting on Sunday, October 26 at 9:45 a.m. in the 4th Story Theater or online. Presenters from various ministry teams will share updates, and we'll celebrate the many ways God has been at work in and through West End in 2025. We'll share financial updates and budget plans for 2025; reports from worship, Sunday School, small groups, and ministry teams. Time to celebrate 2025 and look ahead to 2026!

DON'T MISS HABITAT 2025

There are still three opportunities to be a part of our Habitat Build this Fall! Build dates are 10/25, 11/1, and 11/15. Sign up today at westendumc.org/habitat.

CELEBRATE OUR GIFTS TOGETHER ON OCTOBER 26

As we continue to Build on the Bedrock that was laid by those who came before us, you can support our church both financially and with your prayers, presence, gifts, service, and witness. Next Sunday, October 26, during worship we will present our 2026 Estimates of Giving and our Ministry Gifts to the church.

Our church depends on the financial support of its members to carry out the ministries and programs that allow West End United Methodist Church to be the loving light of Christ, connecting, transforming. By turning in your 2026 Estimate of Giving, you help our church staff and leaders plan and budget for the coming year. You can find a estimate card in the pew back or visit westendumc.org/estimatenow. Be sure to take the Ministry Gifts card that is in your bulletin this week and prayerfully record the ways your prayers, presence, gifts, service and witness can be shared at West End in 2026.

DINE OUT TO DONATE AT P.F. CHANG'S // OCTOBER 23

P.F. Chang's 2525 West End location is supporting our preschool by donating a portion of funds from orders mentioning West End UMC Preschool on Thursday, October 23! This will be an all-day event (so you could dine for lunch or dinner) and will include take-out orders that are called in. Funds raised for the preschool help us host community events like Trunk or Treat, so we hope you'll join us! Please be sure to mention West End Preschool when you order!

GOD LOVES EVERYONE UNCONDITIONALLY: BECOMING OUR BEDROCK BELIEF

McWhirter Hall // Sundays in October // 9:50 a.m.

In recognition of LGBTQIA+ History Month, this class will equip us to read and process challenging Scripture through the lens of our Wesleyan theology, engage in honest conversations regarding historical and contemporary spiritual trauma that deconstructs stereotypes and offers hope for healing, and explore the stories of queer saints who have revealed to us the deepest truth of God's unconditional love.

This class is open to everyone.

CHAT & CHEW LUNCH // TODAY

All local Nashville undergrad and grad students are invited to attend lunch at a local restaurant each Sunday after the 11 a.m. service throughout the semester (with student ID). Contact Rev. Aimee Baxter at abaxter@westendumc.org to find out more.

BLESSING OF THE PETS // NOVEMBER 2

Our Blessing of the Pets will be November 2nd from 3:30 - 4:30 PM at shelter #10 at Edwin Warner Park. Parking is located conveniently in front of the shelter. We are doing a drop in blessing during this time and then encouraging you to take a walk with your pet and use our guided meditation to give God thanks for the blessings our pets bring us. This is a public event! Feel free to invite friends. First 100 people will get pet blessing medallions to put on your pet's collars. Per Edwin Warner Park rules, all animals but horses are welcomed. Please put your pet in a leash or cage as appropriate for the type of animal and be sure to pick up after your pet.

Throughout October and November, we will journey with the prophet Jeremiah as he invites God's people to return to the ways of communal justice, authentic worship, and shared joy. Alongside our reading of the Biblical narrative, we invite you to read the newly released book by Richard Rohr, The Tears of Things. In The Tears of Things, Rohr explores the transformation of the prophet and prophetess through anger, grounded conviction, and steadfast love.

- On October 29, we will host two opportunities to engage with our congregational reading of The Tears of Things. At 12 p.m., Rev. Dr. Carol Cavin-Dillon will host a conversation on Zoom. At 6:15 pm, Jessica Hyne (LPC-MHSP), a Nashville pyschotherapist who has trained with Rohr at the Center of Contemplation and Action, will guide us through a conversational learning session using tools and somatic practices to embrace the transformational prophetic journey. Sign up for one of these sessions at westendumc.org/tearsofthings.
- LGBTQIA+ Book Study // October 8 & 22, November 12 & 19 - As part of our church-wide reading of Richard Rohr's The Tears of Things, Khette Cox will lead a reading and reflection small group for members of the LGTBQIA+ community. For more information, visit westendumc.org/rohrbookstudy.
- To discover a small group or Sunday School class that's reading The Tears of Things in community, reach out to Rev. Will McLeane at wmcleane@westendumc.org.

INNOVATIVE PREACHING EXCHANGE | THE SISTERS CIRCUIT

The Sisters Circuit is an innovative and inspiring preaching exchange where four female senior pastors—the first to be appointed to their congregations—will take turns speaking in one another's home churches. This unique partnership aims to:

- Empower female voices. The circuit elevates the voices and leadership of women in ministry, showcasing their theological depth and pastoral skills to new audiences.
- Strengthen inter-church bonds. It builds fellowship and solidarity among different congregations, demonstrating Christian unity across United Methodist churches and challenging us to make a collective kingdom impact.
