Introit: O Let Us Praise Thee.....Richard Farrant

† Processional Hymn No. 57: O for a Thousand Tongues to Sing.....Azmon verses 1-5 and 7

† Call to WorshipEmily Robbins

Liturgist: When we call on the name of Jesus,

People: we are heard and invited to draw close.

Liturgist: When we petition for help,

People: we are offered compassion and mercy.

Liturgist: When we praise the name of the Lord,

People: we are worshipping God in spirit and in truth.

† Call to Confession and Prayer of Confession

God of mercy,

you are always seeking us and inviting us to draw close to you.

You listen to our cries, and you respond with love and care.

When we ignore the voices of the marginalized,

you call us to pay attention.

Too often we stifle ourselves and others by pretending we have no needs and that others' needs are not worthy of notice.

Forgive us the harm we have done in word, in action,

and in what we have left undone.

May we turn to you every day, and may our lives demonstrate your mercy, love, and justice.

† Silent Confession

† Words of Assurance

Liturgist: Hear the good news: Christ died for us while we were yet sinners; that proves God's love toward us. In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

People: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven!

All: Glory to God. Amen.

† Passing the Peace

Liturgist: As a forgiven and reconciled people, let us exchange signs of reconciliation and love. The peace of Christ be with you.

People: And also with you.

† Gloria Patri.....No. 71

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning,
is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen. Amen.

The Sacrament of Baptism

Renunciation of Sin and Profession of Faith

Liturgist: Will you nurture one another in the Christian faith and life and include this child now before you in your care?

People: With God's help, we will proclaim the good news and live according to the example of Christ. We will surround this child with a community of love and forgiveness that she may grow in service with others. We will pray for her to be a true disciple who walks in the way that leads to life.

Thanksgiving Over the Water

† Commendation and Welcome

Liturgist: Members of the household of God, I commend Alice Wynn to your love and care. Do all in your power to increase her faith, confirm her hope, and perfect her in love.

People: We give thanks for all that God has already given you, Alice Wynn, and we welcome you in Christian love. As members together with you in the body of Christ and in this congregation of the United Methodist Church, we renew our covenant to participate faithfully in the ministries of the church by our prayers, our presence, our gifts, our service, and our witness, that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ.

Sermon: Seeing as Healing..... Rea Green

† Affirmation of Faith Will McLeane
We are not alone, we live in God's world.
We believe in God:
who has created and is creating,
who has come in Jesus, the Word made Flesh,
to reconcile and make new,
who works in us and others by the Spirit.
We trust in God.
We are called to be the church:
to celebrate God's presence,
to live with respect in Creation,
to love and serve others,
to seek justice and resist evil,
to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.
In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us.
We are not alone. Thanks be to God. Amen.

Today's Music

John Bell, composer of "The Summons," was born in the Scottish town of Kilmarnock in Ayrshire and had intended to be a music teacher when he felt the call to the ministry. But, frustrated with his classes, he instead did volunteer work in a deprived neighborhood in London for a time and also served for two years as an associate pastor at the English Reformed Church in Amsterdam. After graduating, he worked for 5 years as a youth pastor for the Church of Scotland, serving a large region encompassing about 500 churches. He then took a similar position with the Iona Community and, with his colleague Graham Maule, began to broaden the youth ministry to focus on the renewal of the church's worship.

Bulletin Cover Art

Jorge Cocco Santángelo, an Uruguayan artist now living in Argentina, painted "I Was Blind But Now I See" in 2020 in what is known as the "sacro-cubism" style. In this depiction of Jesus' healing of Bartemaeus, we find Bartemaeus kneeling before Jesus who has his hand outstretched, touching Bartemaeus' forehead. Behind Bartemaeus are two witnesses, along with another witness standing behind Jesus.

COMMUNION OFFERING

Our February Communion Offering will benefit ODIM. ODIM provides competent, compassionate, and comprehensive medical care and education in two of the poorest places on earth on beautiful Lake Atitlan Guatemala. We are raising money to build stoves and keep the clinic open for the days our team will be there in March. Our goal is $4,700 to build 10 stoves.

FAITHFUL GIVING 2026

Our church depends on the financial support of its members to carry out the ministries and programs that allow West End UMC to be the loving light of Christ, connecting, transforming. By turning in your 2026 Estimate of Giving, you help our church staff and leaders plan and budget for the coming year. You can find a pledge card in the pew rack or visit westendumc.org/estimatesnow.

As of February 4, we have received 312 Estimates of Giving for 2026 for a total of $2,210,180.20 towards our budget of $3,047,000.

Join us for a beloved West End tradition of pancakes and loads of fun for all ages followed by our annual Jazz Mass! Along with the food will be decorations and Mardi Gras-themed activities for children and the young at heart! We are receiving donations for the Vanderbilt Wesley Foundation, our United Methodist college campus ministry at Vanderbilt University. You can pay any amount for your meal with a suggested donation of $10. Payments can be made at the door or in advance at vandywesley.org/give. Those active in the ministry will be preparing the meal alongside volunteers from the Sunny Day Club. Come celebrate with your church family at West End UMC!

Shrove Tuesday JAZZ MASS February 17 ♦ 6:30 p.m. ♦ Sanctuary

Enjoy a unique worship opportunity complete with beads, masks, and other Mardi Gras trimmings. Make plans to attend a Mardi Gras-style Jazz Mass on Shrove Tuesday, February 17 in the Sanctuary at 6:30 pm. This festive celebration of Holy Communion is framed in a jazz setting with a jazz band, a Mardi Gras-style processional, hymns, soloists from the recording industry, and vocal interpretations of the traditional text. Join us in this final celebration for Christians before the Lenten season begins the next day. Childcare is available for children under age 2 for this worship service. This service will also be Livestreamed.

Ash Wednesday Services February 18 // 12 and 6:15 p.m.

The Jazz Mass on Shrove Tuesday only has meaning within the context of the services that take place on the following day, Ash Wednesday. The contrast between the celebration and excess of Tuesday gives way to the solemnity and restraint of Ash Wednesday. It is in the radically different character of the two days that we discover the meaning of each. If you attend the Jazz Mass, seriously consider attending one of the Ash Wednesday services as well. If you are a regular attender at an Ash Wednesday service, seriously consider participating in the Jazz Mass in preparation to experience the importance of the imposition of ashes that follows the next day. Ash Wednesday services will be on February 18 at 12 and 6:15 pm.

ROOM IN THE INN HOSTS STILL NEEDED FOR MARCH 11

Our 2025-2026 Room in the Inn season is going strong, but we have one date left that needs a small group/family/Sunday School class to claim. If you or your small group/Sunday School class is available March 11th to provide dinner, breakfast, and lunch, we can likely provide drivers and overnight hosts. Let us know if you’re interested by emailing sharwellldye@westendumc.org. Please help us house 13 guests that night.

ACCESSIBILITY IN WORSHIP

♦ Service Dogs - On Sundays, we may have congregants or staff with service or guide dogs in worship with us. Please warmly welcome them both, but refrain from petting the dog because it is a distraction to the animal while it is working.
